

GAIA COCKTAILS

Since ancient times, Greeks have adored nature's greatest gifts and applied them to many aspects across their lives. Enveloping rare botanicals, fresh ingredients, unique blends and artisanal liquors, we celebrate every element of GAIA, the mother of all life.

Greeks consider the ritual of raising a glass with friends and family as the affirmation of meaningful connections, rejoicing life, evoking memories and welcoming new experiences.

Sparkling conversation and sharing drinks are key components of the Greek flair for effortlessly embracing spontaneity and friendship.

THE SUN

The Ancient Greeks revered the sun as one of the most powerful elements, the bestower of light & life to the totality of the cosmos. They celebrated the sun and gave thanks for its power to awaken the earth, offering fertility and providing them with the comforts and necessities of life. Inspired by the season of light and radiance, using ingredients that evoke the simplicity and abundance of the sun.

Impeccably shaken, complexly flavourful with zesty and warming tones.
